

Biography

Gina is New Orleans' best kept secret....not anymore. She grew up in Mobile, Alabama. New Orleans has been her home base for the past 12 years.

She first started her career as a Radio announcer for WBLX-AM/FM in Mobile. That's where she started singing commercial jingles. From there her career as a vocalist took flight.

From family functions (which is where it really all started) to wedding ceremonies, underground jazz clubs, outdoor festivals, 5 star hotels and international tours.

After moving to New Orleans she began singing with jazz violinist Michael Ward and still to this date shares the stage with him. She is featured on his first CD.

Recorded her first CD while on tour in Bangkok in 2002. Self titled "Gina". She is on the compilation CD "Fulton Street Live" produced by Harrah's New Orleans. Currently she has released a single entitled "Cant Stop Thinking Of You" and a Live CD with her band Anutha Level, which are both available now.

Gina's shared the stage with many artist like, Gerald Levert, Jon B., Pattie Austin, Earl Turner, Fantasia and Ruben Studdard from American Idol.....and let's not forget her favorites, Bad Company, Roberta Flack, Etta James, Regina Belle, Ann Nesby, the legendary Billy Paul. Her musical style varies from Blues, Jazz, Motown, Pop, Oldies, Hip-hop, Funk, you name it.

Gina's exciting, exhilarating performance has been seen all over the world. Her travels include: Brazil, Taipei, Taiwan; Yokohama, Nagoya, Tokyo, Iwukuni, Japan; Hong Kong, Bangkok, Jakarta, Indonesia and also a tour in the Middle East Abu Dhabi and Dubai. Her performance is guaranteed to be a memorable one for anyone who see her.
